A-Level Results Day

Brigidine School

RESULTS were high at Brigidine School as students congratulated each other on their success. Students and staff at the school in Kings Road were celebrating a 97.4 per cent pass rate on Thursday.

Star pupil Daisy Vaughan-West gained two A's in English Literature and Fine Art and C in French. The 18-year-old is now getting ready to study English at Goldsmiths, University of London. She said: "I am shocked. I wasn't expecting it at all. My mum was absolutely speechless."

A total of 76 per cent of pupils achieved A*, C and 88 per cent A*-B.

Headteacher Elizabeth Robinson said: "We are extremely pleased at this outcome. This year sees the introduction of the new A* grade at A2 for the very highest achievement."

"We are pleased that the majority of our students have gained places at their first choice university."

JOY AND RELIEF: Daisy Vaughan-West, Katharine Morris and Kiranjeet Bhatt of Brigidine School.
